NEW YORK CENTRAL DEPOT IS ROBBED

Thieves Garner Considerable
Booty From Trunks—
No Money Taken.

The New York Central depot, 8. Main st., was burglarized between 2 and 4 o'clock Sunday morning and considerable clothing and other articles taken from trunks in the baggage room, which adjoins the main office. Before ransacking the trunks the burglars attempted to get into the office safe, smashing the heavy door, breaking the hinges and combination, and otherwise damaging it. They failed, however to reach the cash box, which contained $71.

Among the articles taken from the trunks were several suits of clothing, a number of sweaters, two razors, several pairs of shoes and a quantity of dry goods. The trunks had been checked into Mishawaka and were awaiting the owners.

After taking the articles from the freight room it is presumed they returned to the office and broke open a desk and, finding nothing but papers, scattered them over the floor. Entrance was gained to the depot by breaking a window at the west end of the baggage room. They secured an axe in the basement, which they used to open the trunks. They gained entrance to the ticket office by breaking one of the windows. The robbery was discovered by Harold L. Hall, baggage master, when he went on duty Sunday morning.

Railway detectives as well as the local police are working on the case.

TODAY'S TEMPLE BILL.

Some people love lightly and for but a day. Others love deeply and for aye. Peter Waverton was one of the latter. He was a man of wealth and social position, but his love for Margaret, a lowly governess, was true and steadfast.

When treachery separated them for six long years and chance brought them together again, the flame that love had kindled still glowed warmly and lighted the way to true happiness.

This is only one theme of "Passers By," in which Herbert Rawlinson is starring at the Temple theater for two days, commencing today. J. Stuart Blackton is said to have made of C. Haddon Chambers' charming play, his masterpiece. It is released by Pathe.

"MADAME X" AT LINCOLN TODAY.

Pauline Frederick will be seen today and tomorrow at the Lincoln theater in "Madame X," adapted from the French of Alexander Bisson by arrangement with Henry W. Savage, and directed by Frank Lloyd. This picture is one of the best ever screened, and that Mishawakans are to be given an opportunity of seeing it will no doubt redound to the credit of the management of the Lincoln. "Madame X" is a picture that is called the greatest emotional production in the last 10 years.
